

英国帝国理工博士生暑期学校项目招募通知

Students from Imperial College, Hong Kong University (HKU) and Shanghai Jiao Tong University (SJTU) will participate in the transferable skills course. This will cover topics including:

- ✧ How to manage your research project
- ✧ Intercultural awareness
- ✧ Succeeding in collaborative research
- ✧ Building successful working relationships

Participants work in small groups, assisted by a tutor from one of the three institutions. The course provides students with a chance to develop their transferable and research skills in an international environment.
